The MENA Higher Education Leadership Forum

"Where Leaders of Higher Education Meet"

About the MENA Higher Education Leadership Forum (MENA-HELF)

The MENA Higher Education Leadership Forum (MENA-HELF) organized by the Center for Learning Innovations and Customized Knowledge Solutions (CLICKS) is one of the region's exclusive networks addressing specifically Higher Education leaders and decision makers from across the globe. Via its various meetings, the biennial Forum aims to provide a platform to discuss latest trends, developments and challenges pertinent to the field; encourage the exchange of experiences and good practices; identify and suggest future directions and promote the establishment of new regional and global collaborations.

Every edition of the Forum is organized around an emerging theme of common interest to Higher Education both regionally and globally. Previous themes covered topics related to rankings and world-class universities, addressing the gap between industry and academia, innovation in higher education, higher education in light of the 4th industry revolution, etc.

Forum General Objectives

1

To discuss emerging development, trends and issues of common concern to both global and regional Higher Education

2

To stimulate and strengthen academic cooperation between Higher Education Institutions

3

To share best practices and 'know-how' and learn from each others' experiences

4

To set future directions for Higher Education within the region and influence policy formulation

5

To form a "think-tank" for the future of Higher Education within the region and beyond

6

To regionally promote the concept of academic excellence and enable institutions of Higher Education to reach a world class status

Who Shall Attend ?

Every edition, the Forum expands its outreach to include new geographies and countries.

Leaders and decision makers representing more than 60 countries attend the forum including:

- Senior Higher Education Administrators, Chancellors, Presidents, Rectors, Provosts, Vice Chancellors and Deans of Colleges.
- Members of governing bodies of Universities & Colleges.
- Higher Education Policy Makers.
- Representatives from Ministries of Higher Education, Accreditation Agencies, National Research Foundations, etc.
- Representatives from NGOs and IGOs concerned with Higher Education.
- Researchers.
- Representatives from National Students Bodies and Employers.

Forum Activities & Structure

The Forum structure includes a combination of synthesized research and experiential learning that stimulates discussions, encourage new ideas to be generated and debated and help formulate strategies to support the overall advancement of Higher Education.

Through its meticulously designed and crafted program, the MENA-HELF empowers participants to take an active role throughout the event and features in each of its edition several activities that include: keynote addresses by eminent international and regional speakers, interactive panel discussions, controversial debates, institutional best practices and case studies' presentations, focus groups, special meetings and workshops.

Along the Forum an exhibition takes place where various Higher Education Service Providers have the opportunity to present and showcase their products and services and may organize demonstrations or schedule meetings.

The Forum also provides plenty of opportunities for formal and informal networking among participants.
